Applicants may be required to authorize access to educational, financial, employment, criminal history, mental health records or other records. Family, neighbors, associates and others may be interviewed. Derogatory information will be evaluated and may result in disqualification under Section 50(4) of New York State Civil Service Law. Under Section 58 of New York State Civil Service Law candidates are subject to additional screenings as a term and condition of employment, including but not limited to, medical and psychological testing, fingerprinting and polygraph. Drug testing is included in the required medical exam.

Important Information about the Professional Policing Act of 2021

Under the provisions of the Professional Policing Act of 2021, New York State Title 9 NYCRR Part 6000 and Title 9 NYCRR Part 6056 were amended to prescribe minimum training, background, and character standards for appointment of persons to police officer positions. Under the provisions of Part 6000 and Part 6056, applicants may be determined to lack good moral character if:

1. You were previously appointed as a police officer in New York State, were removed from said employment for cause, had your training certificate permanently invalidated by the NYS Division of Criminal Justice Services and are listed on their decertification index;(link)
2. You are listed on the National Decertification Index after having been decertified as a police officer in any state other than New York State;

3. Within 3 years from the date of application, you:

a. Engaged in criminal activity, whether criminally charged or prosecuted, regardless of where the act took place, if said conduct would constitute an offense in New York, which is defined as:

(i) Any felony offense;

(ii) Any sex offense or sexually violent offense as defined in article 6C of the Correction Law;

(iii) All serious offenses defined in subdivision 17 of section 265 of the Penal Law;

(iv) Crimes involving official misconduct and obstruction of public servants as defined in article 195 of the Penal Law; crimes involving bribery of a public servant as defined in article 200 of the Penal Law; crimes involving perjury as defined in article 210 of the Penal Law; and/or crimes relating to judicial proceedings as defined in article 215 of the Penal Law;

(v) Crimes involving forgery as defined in article 170 of the Penal Law; crimes involving false written statements as defined in article 175 of the Penal Law; crimes involving fraud as defined in article 190 of the Penal Law;

(vi) Crimes involving assault and menacing as defined in article 120 of the Penal Law; crimes involving obscenity as defined in article 235 of the Penal Law; crimes against public sensibilities as defined in article 245 of the Penal Law; or crimes against public order as defined in article 240 of the Penal Law.

4. Engaged in the unlawful use of any controlled substances.

5. Made false statement(s) or engaged in conduct that subverts or attempts to subvert the police employment application process.

6. Received a dishonorable discharge from any of the Armed Forces of the United States which has not been adjusted under the terms of the New York State Restoration of Honor Act.

Training Requirements: Individuals must satisfactorily complete the Basic Course for Police Officers as prescribed by the Municipal Police Training Council and required by Section 209-q of General Municipal Law within one (1) year of appointment in order to attain permanent status in the position.

CROSS FILER STATEMENT: If you have applied for other civil service examination(s) to be given on the same test date for employment with New York State or any other local government jurisdiction excluding New York City, you must make arrangements to take all the examinations at ONE test site.

If you have applied for other local government examinations, you must complete and submit the cross-file form with EACH civil service agency you wish to receive credit for. Arrangements should be requested no later than two weeks prior to the date of the examination(s). You must notify (with the cross-file application) ALL local government civil service agencies with whom you have filed an application, of the test site at which you wish to take your examination. If you do not complete and submit a cross-file form, you will not receive credit for that agency's exam. Please check directly with any other municipal agencies with which you may have employment interest; credit for other entities may not be given after the fact.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: There will be a written test, which you must pass in order to be considered for appointment. Only your score on the written test will be considered when computing your final score. In addition, candidates will be required to meet the physical fitness and medical standards (copy provided) prescribed by the Municipal Police Training Council. Candidates must pass the written test in order to be scheduled for the qualifying physical fitness test. Candidates who pass the qualifying physical fitness test and who are given a conditional offer of employment, will be scheduled to take the required medical examination.

THE WRITTEN TEST will be designed to measure knowledge, skills and/or abilities in such areas as:

Situational Judgment. These questions test for the ability to identify appropriate and effective responses to work-related challenges. You will be presented with scenarios that reflect the types of challenges one could encounter in a work environment. Each scenario will be followed by several responses to the scenario. You must rate the effectiveness of each response.

Language Fluency. These questions test for the ability to read, understand, and present a clear and accurate summary of information. For some questions, you will be given a brief reading passage followed by four statements, each summarizing the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given several sentences, one of which contains a spelling, grammatical, or punctuation error. You must then select the line that contains the error.

Information Ordering and Language Sequencing. These questions test for the ability to properly identify the sequence or order of events, or to organize information to fit a timeline. You will be given a brief reading passage followed by one or more questions. You must identify the proper sequence of events in order to answer one or more questions.

Problem Sensitivity and Reasoning. These questions test for the ability to apply information and to identify a problem or potential problem. For some questions, you will be given information in the form of policies, rules, regulations, or laws, which will be followed by a situation. You must then identify the problem and apply the information to select the best course of action to take. For other questions, you will be given a scenario and mock witness statements. You must use this information to answer one or more questions about the scenario.

Selective Attention. These questions test for the ability to focus on completing a task and to pay attention to important details while performing repetitive and monotonous tasks. You will be presented with a series of letters, symbols, and/or numbers. You must select the choice that contains the series of letters, symbols, and/or number that matches exactly.

Visualization. These questions test for the ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are changed, moved, or rearranged. You will be presented with an image of a face followed by four images of faces. Each face is disguised or altered in some way. Three of the images have a difference in facial structure or facial features. You must select the choice that contains the image with the identical facial structure and facial features.

Spatial Orientation. These questions test for the ability to understand how to navigate within spaces or how to get from one point to another. You will be provided with a map followed by one or more questions. You must imagine yourself at a certain location and orient yourself to the direction in which you would move to get to another location by the shortest (least distance) route.

Test guide. A Guide for the Written Test for Entry-Level Law Enforcement is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES: Use of calculators is PROHIBITED for this exam. Devices with typewriter keyboards, spell checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.

Copies of the physical fitness and medical standards are available upon request from the Saratoga County Human Resources Department. Physical Agility testing is scheduled on an as needed basis.

RETEST FOR PHYSICAL AGILITY TEST: Candidates are required to pass all three (3) elements of the physical agility test in its entirety. If a candidate fails any part of the physical agility test, they will have the opportunity for an additional retest. Retest will consist of all three (3) elements. A candidate can be tested a total of two (2) times on the physical agility test. If a candidate fails to successfully complete the required physical agility test after two attempts, their name will be removed from the eligible list. All physical agility tests are scheduled on an as needed basis and candidates will be notified prior. Successful completion of the physical agility test with another NYS agency, that meets the Cooper Standard as detailed above, has been certified by a qualified trainer, and has been performed within the last calendar year, will be considered in place of Saratoga County’s physical agility.

ELIGIBLE LIST: A candidate's eligibility begins when his or her name is placed on the eligible list and continues for a minimum of one year.

SECTION 243-b provides that any member of the armed forces of the United States who had duly filed an application to compete in a scheduled competitive examination, but was deprived of the opportunity to compete in a scheduled competitive examination due to active military duty be provided with a special military makeup examination.

SECTION 85a OF THE CIVIL SERVICE LAW: In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

VETERAN CREDITS: Veterans who are eligible for additional credit must submit a copy of your DD214 in order to receive credits. Disabled veterans who are eligible for additional credit must submit a copy of your DD214 and a copy of your letter stating you are disabled in order to receive credits. All documents must be received by the establishment of the eligible list or you will not receive additional credits. Veteran credits can only be added to a passing score of the examination.

Beginning January 1, 1998, the NYS Constitution allows members of the US Armed Forces who are on active duty (other than for training purposes) the right to request extra War Time Veterans Credits on civil service examinations prior to discharge.

If you are currently on active duty, you may request the addition of veteran's credits to your examinations score. You must request the extra credits on your examination application in the space provided. If you pass the examination, the credits will be added automatically. To use the extra credits at the time of appointment you must have received an honorable discharge, be a US citizen, and be a resident of New York State. The extra credits can only be used for one NY local Government or New York State government permanent appointment. No credit may be granted after the establishment of the list.

It is the responsibility of the candidate to provide appropriate documentary proof indicating that the service was in time of war, as defined in Section 85 of Civil Service Law, and that the candidate received an honorable discharge or was released under honorable conditions in order to be certified at a score including veteran's credits.

SECTION 23.2: This entire examination is prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations, which deal with the preparation and rating of examinations, will apply.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVER/DISABLED CANDIDATES/MILITARY MEMBERS: Applicants whose religious beliefs or military service prevent their taking examinations on the scheduled date and candidates with disabilities who require special accommodations to take the test should indicate the need for special arrangements in the appropriate section of their application.

Military Service Members: If you apply for an examination during the filing period but are on active military duty on the date the examination is scheduled, you may request a military makeup examination. Contact Saratoga County Human Resources for more information. If you are on active duty or discharged after the filing period, you may apply for the examination up to ten days before the test date.

APPLICATIONS: You may file application for the exam online through the link provided. Manual applications are available in the Human Resources Office, 40 McMaster St., Ballston Spa, NY 12020, and are also available to download from our website @ www.saratogacountyny.gov, or by calling 518-885-2225.

Time and place of the examination will be mailed to approved candidates approximately one week to ten days prior to the date of the examination. In the event you have a change of address, contact the Saratoga County Human Resources Department at 518-885-2225. If you have NOT received a notice to appear for the written exam at least three days prior to the date of the exam, contact the Saratoga County Human Resources Department at 518-885-2225.

If you require reasonable accommodation in completing this application, interviewing, completing any pre-employment testing, or otherwise participating in the employee selection process, please direct inquiries to the Human Resources Office.
